

2023 INDUSTRY STATISTICS

FOR HAIRDRESSING, BARBERING & BEAUTY

BUSINESS

Over 75% of hair and beauty businesses have an annual turnover of less than £99k.

More than 77% of hair and beauty businesses employ fewer than five people and 95% fewer than ten people.

There are over 61,000 hair and beauty businesses in the UK, a rise of over 1,900 (2.2%).

The number of hairdressing, barbering and beauty businesses continued to grow but at a slower rate than previously.

The hair and beauty industry generated £4.56bn in turnover in 2022-2023.

Hair and beauty businesses remain resilient, with survival rates for business across all categories remaining stable.

PEOPLE

The hairdressing and beauty workforce declined by around 18,500 (7%).

60.5% of people working in the hair and beauty sector are self-employed.

Less than half the workforce are aged 16-24.

Over 86% of the workforce are female.

Around 5,700 people started hairdressing and barbering apprenticeships in England in 2022/23.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

The full report is free to Members and available for £250 to non-members. Please call 01234 831965 for more information or visit nhsf.co.uk.

The NHSF is the UK's largest trade body representing over 5,000 business owners. Since we started in 1942 our unrivalled knowledge and expertise has made us the most trusted resource and 'go to' organisation for salons, barbershops and self-employed chair, space and room renters.

Membership is open to salons, barbershops and chair, space and room renters.

Trade membership is open to suppliers of salon products, equipment, advice or services and colleges or training providers.

Follow us @nhsfsocial

www.nhsf.co.uk

